NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President:

U. S. GRANT,

Of Illinois.

For Vice President:

SCHUYLER COLFAX,

Of Indiana.

For Presidential Electors:

O. JACOBS, of Jackson
WILSON BOWLBY, of Washington
A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla

Justice to Mr. Logan.

Perhaps no man who comes prominently before the people can hope to wholly escape the ungenerous assaults of envy or the carping criticism of little minds. We hear that a few persons who profess allegiance to the Union party have been mean enough to insinuate that Mr. Logan did not obtain the full party vote in the late election, and that if another man had been nominated the result would have been much better for the party. We unhesitatingly declare our belief, and our opportunity for forming an opinion has been at least as good as that enjoyed by some others,—that no man could have been nominated by the Union party who would have obtained a larger vote than Mr. Logan. In almost every county he is ahead of the general ticket. A comparison of the vote thrown for him with that thrown for others on the ticket in different localities will settle this point at once. This insinuation that Mr. Logan could not command the respect or support of the party is in kind with the statements made in the "Adams circular" which the Copperheads peddled with such zeal on election day. Adams says that though Logan was beaten by over 100 votes in June, 1860, "Lincoln swept the State handsomely in November." There is no man who ought not to be ashamed to make such a disingenuous statement as this. When Logan ran in June, 1860, there were but two candidates in the field. When Lincoln ran in the following November there were three. Logan received 6,529 votes in June, and was defeated, while Lincoln received 5,270 in November, and carried the State. Thus Logan obtained 1,259 votes more in the June election of that year than were thrown for Lincoln five months later; yet Adams asserts that he was beaten because he could not command the vote of his party! This is a specimen of the fairness of those (their number is very small)—who are carping about Mr. Logan.

The Principles which Produced the Rebellion.

Ex-Governor Brown, of Georgia, was present at the Chicago Convention, and while the Committee on Credentials was out, made a speech, a portion of which we quote:

> Upon the theory which I had been taught was the true one of State sovereignty, when I had formerly taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, I understood it to bind me only while my State remained in the Union, but if she withdrew, which I believed she had a right to do, from just cause, of which from the necessity of the case I thought she should be the judge, I did not feel that I violated my oath when I went with my State. But since that time, when the President of the United States granted me his pardon, he required me to take a different oath. I was sworn to support, not only the Constitution of the United States, but the Union of the States. When I did that I abandoned the doctrine of secession, for I could not support the union of the States and encourage secession from the Union. The Virginia and Kentucky resolutions advocated that doctrine. If I understand them, it has always been a part of the platform on which they have stood. Hence it is that I feel I am no longer bound by party allegiance, to stand by the Democratic party. If I cannot stand by them, where do I naturally fall then? The Hamiltonian and Websterian doctrine has been established. My own opinions, and the action of the Democratic party, naturally lead me, as I think, into the Republican party.

It is gratifying to find men candidly acknowledging and frankly renouncing their errors. Ex-Gov. Brown fairly and fully states the issue between the two ideas of Government, the antagonism of which produced the great civil war. He believed that under the Democratic doctrine, a State had a right to withdraw from the Union. The Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions, the foundation of the Democratic creed, affirmed that right. But that, as Brown has learned, is not the true theory of our Government. The Democratic interpretation is wrong, and the Hamiltonian or Federal interpretation is right. In common with a great many other ex-rebels, Brown has sense enough to see this and candor enough to acknowledge it. They therefore renounce their errors. In rebelling against the Government they were only carrying out "Democratic" principles; but as those principles led them so far into error, they want nothing more to do with them. While the ex-rebels of the South are thus abandoning the dogmas of "Democracy," we however find that party in Oregon "renewing its pledge of unswerving fidelity" to the very same principles which the rebels themselves assure us produced the rebellion. Is it possible to make this case plainer? Is it possible to show more clearly what the "time-honored principles" are?

Mismanagement of the Mails.

From the frequency with which complaints are made about the delay or failure of the mails in different parts of the State, we must conclude that mail matters are sadly out of joint in many places. From almost every quarter letters reach us burdened with indignant inquiries as to the cause why the OREGONIAN does not duly appear. At Sheridan and Grand Ronde the paper is often a fortnight or a month behind time, and only makes its appearance after a trip to La Grande or some other remote place. The mails for Express Ranch, Rye Valley, Humboldt Basin, Amelia City and other places in that section are often sent through to Boise and rarely return, or are stopped at Baker City and never sent forward. In Pacific county, Washington Territory, the people cannot get their mails with any regularity, and the Olympia papers say that the mails from Portland to that place often fail to arrive. "If the steamers on the Columbia river have a chance to get a vessel to tow or an extra lot of freight they pay no attention to schedule time, and the contractors from Monticello have so short a time to connect in that it is impossible for them to remain long waiting for the boat." We only instance a few of the complaints which are almost daily reaching us. It would be gratifying to the public and particularly gratifying to the publishers of newspapers, if these things could be remedied.

A meeting of the "Boys in Blue" was held at Philadelphia on the 15th of May, in which the "recreant Senators" were denounced as men "who have conspired to place the Government which we have saved from its armed foes, absolutely in control of its rebel enemies."

The appropriations asked for in the River and Harbor Bill which has been completed by the Committee and will be presented to Congress shortly, embraces an item of $25,000 for the improvement of the lower Willamette river.

Political Items.

The Boston Post (Democratic) boasts that "a Georgia negro walked eighteen miles to vote the Democratic ticket."

The Atlanta New Era says of the recent election in Georgia: "We learn that some thirty thousand dollars was spent in the city of Macon by the so called Democracy, to secure the 'negro vote!'"

A New York correspondent of the Boston Post says he thinks that if Pendleton gets the Democratic nomination, "a good many Democrats in this part of the country will stay at home on election day."

Some patient plodder, who has searched through Evarts' three days' speech, finds that he did make one good point,—when he said, "The man Andrew Johnson is comparatively of little consequence."

"Brick Pomeroy" is very much disgusted with the movement in favor of Gen. Hancock for President, and says: What a nice thing it would be for the Democrats to nominate and elect a man for President who is liable to be indicted, tried, convicted and executed for the murder of Mrs Surratt and others.

Ex Reb. Gen. Hill writes a letter, announcing that "Democratic negroes marched in procession to a mass meeting which he addressed in Georgia—the larger portion of the audience being negroes." He says "They carried transparencies with Democratic mottoes. Proclaim it," he adds, "that honor is saved, peace secured, Democracy triumphant."

The Nashville Banner (Democratic) offers the following advice to A. J.: "Mr. Johnson's wisest course will be to return to his quiet home in Tennessee, forswear politicians as a bad lot—the whole of them, lay in a good supply of corn and bacon, like Tyler, cultivate cabbage and bacon, like Van Buren; get religious, like Old Hickory, when tired of the 'world, the flesh and the devil,' and write a book like Buchanan."

The Corinth (Miss.) News, a staunch rebel sheet, after taking a calm and dispassionate view of the whole situation, shows signs of returning reason by coming out boldly in favor of the ratification of the new constitution, soon to be submitted to the people. It has, therefore, concluded to support the new free constitution of Mississippi, if "no more illiberal provisions are incorporated in it than have yet appeared." It declares that some of its provisions are not what could have been desired, but taken as a whole, so far as perfected, it is not as objectionable as might have been expected.

There can be no doubt but Pendleton is the most truly representative man of the Democratic party whose name has been mentioned in connection with the candidacy for the office of President; yet it is extremely doubtful about his getting the nomination. A terrible quarrel is going on among the newspapers of the party all over the country, and the Democratic wire pullers at the East are exerting all their power to beat Pendleton, for whom it is understood that the West, and very likely the South, will go en masse. They will wrangle about it before the Convention, but after the nomination is made they will all support the candidate, whether he be Pendleton, Seymour, Hancock, Chase or even Fred Douglass.

STATE ITEMS.

The Congregational Association of Oregon will hold its next annual meeting at Forest Grove on Thursday, June 18, 1868.

Logan has 80 majority in Coos and Curry counties. This is a considerable Union gain since the last election.

The Linn County Teachers' Semi Annual Institute will be held at Oak Plain School House, commencing on Tuesday, July 7th, at 1 o'clock P. M., and continuing three days.

An ordinance has been introduced in the City Council of Salem to aid the construction of the East Side Railroad by payment of interest for twenty years on one hundred thousand dollars of the Company's bonds.

On Wednesday morning a hat and valise belonging to P. W. Street, a cooper of Salem, was found at the steamboat landing at that place. The valise contained a letter expressing the writer's intention to destroy himself. No trace of the missing man has been found.

Work of the Chicago Convention.

WASHINGTON, May 22.

THE NEWS AT THE CAPITAL.

The nomination of General Grant being a foregone conclusion, the interest of the day here centred on the action of the Chicago Convention with reference to the Vice Presidency. The selection of Colfax gives great satisfaction. The friends of Mr. Wade are, of course, disappointed, but they universally announce themselves now for the ticket as it stands. The Western Union Telegraph Company, through the kindness of its President, had connected its wires so as to make a direct line from Chicago to the War Office, and the House wing of the Capitol, and Mr. Orton himself sent a telegram every few minutes all the afternoon, so that everything done inside the Opera House at Chicago was known there as soon as it was in the streets of that city.

GENERAL GRANT

was at his office as usual, and about his accustomed duties, apparently one of the most unconcerned and self possessed men in Washington. The news of his nomination, on General Logan's motion of acclamation, was brought over to him as soon as it was received, by Secretary Stanton, Hooper, Ames, Pile, and two or three other gentlemen. General Grant received the intelligence very quietly. In response to the congratulations of Mr. Stanton and friends, he simply said "Thank you," and at once inquired about the platform. A synopsis of this was read to him, and he then took the paper and carefully read it himself, saying after two or three minutes' consideration, "That is good," and nodded assent when somebody remarked that the battle could be fought on that line this summer. He afterwards said that he was particularly pleased with the declaration against any form of repudiation. He remained at his rooms in the Army Headquarters, through the business hours, and in course of the afternoon received a large number of congratulatory telegrams, and was visited by many public men and private citizens.

SPEAKER COLFAX

was at the Capitol all day, engaged for several hours in writing letters and giving directions about sending off documents. The ballots, as they were taken, were furnished to him from the telegraph office, and he knew of his nomination sooner than the people of Chicago did! who were half a dozen blocks from the Opera House. Several gentlemen were with him at the time, all of whom, of course, immediately congratulated him. The telegram announcing his nomination was sent by Mr. Orton, President of the Telegraph Company, and in a short time he received several dispatches from friends in the Convention.

THE NEWSPAPER OFFICES.

The news of the nomination was made public on the streets here from the office of the Chicago Tribune at six o'clock, and it very soon spread through that section of the city near Willard's Hotel and the Ebbett House, bringing a throng of people at once to the newspaper offices to see the full vote. Mr. Colfax is personally so popular here that even those who desired another nomination rejoiced in his success.

CONGRATULATIONS

This evening General Grant and Speaker Colfax were visited by nearly all the Republican members of both branches of Congress, as well as by a large number of private citizens. Mr Colfax received his friends with his usual graceful courtesy, and accepted their congratulations with unaffected good nature. General Grant's parlors were well filled nearly all the evening, the ladies of his family being present and sharing with him the honors of the hour. He responded to the good wishes of his visitors in his usual quiet and modest manner, and did not hesitate to say that he thought the selection of Mr Colfax an excellent one.

PROPOSED SERENADE.

There was some talk among the more enthusiastic friends of the ticket about having a serenade this evening, but the wiser heads saw the impropriety of such a proceeding, and it was postponed till another night.

MR. WADE.

Mr. Wade received the news of his defeat, from a friend, while at his hotel. He took the matter very coolly and philosophically, and spoke kindly of his successful competitor.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE

The news was not received at the White House till some time after it had got upon the streets. The President don't like the platform, and is confident that if he is nominated by the Democrats in July he can beat Grant at the polls in November.

A GLORIOUS DAY'S WORK.

The Republicans accept the day's work at Chicago with good heart, and will go into the coming campaign determined on success, not in the least doubting that the people will ratify the nominations of their delegates at Chicago, and finish the contest begun at Fort Sumter on that April day, seven years ago, by restoring all the States to the Union and keeping faith with the freedmen and the bondholders.

CONGRATULATORY TELEGRAMS.

A large number of telegrams have been received during the day by both gentlemen on the ticket, Mr. Colfax having about one hundred. Governor Bullock sends the following to General Grant:

"Allow me to congratulate you on the unanimity and enthusiasm with which you were nominated. Massachusetts will support you in the Presidency as heretofore in the field."

And the following to Speaker Colfax:

"I rejoice in your nomination. You have no better or more cordial friends anywhere than in Massachusetts. We will contribute our full share to the November harvest."

George H. Stewart, the well known President of the Christian Commission, telegraphed to Mr. Colfax from Pittsburgh:

"My prophecy of 1864, in the Speaker's room, with my hands on the shoulders of Grant and Colfax, is fulfilled. God bless our next Vice President and make him as faithful for the right in the Senate as he is in the House."

The following comes from J. O. Stranahan, former member of Congress, and now President of the Brooklyn Ferry Company:

"Let me congratulate you. Democracy must take the dust when such a pair of matched roadsters as Grant and Colfax are on the track."

REJOICINGS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 22.—Most of the delegates have returned from the Chicago Convention, and are warmly congratulated on the result of their labors. The nominations please nearly all but the Democrats, and they look blue. One hundred guns will be fired to-morrow night, and a grand ratification meeting held, at which it is expected ex-Governors Brown, of Georgia, and Lane, of Indiana, are to be the leading speakers.

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 22.—The nomination of Grant and Colfax is hailed everywhere in Tennessee with acclamations of joy. The candidates and the platform give complete satisfaction. Tennessee will give the Republican ticket 50,000 majority.

MILWAUKEE, May 22.—The National Republican Convention of 1868 has done its work, and done it well. It has given us a ticket, which, taken as a whole, we earnestly believe to be the best the people of America have had the privilege of voting for for many years.

PORTLAND, Me., May 22.—One hundred guns were fired to-day over the nominations.

MEMPHIS, May 22.—The Bulletin, Post and Loyal League had flags flying in honor of the nomination of Grant and Colfax.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 22.—The work of the Chicago Convention gives immense satisfaction in this city. Every Republican is enthusiastic over the ticket and platform. The success of the great party of human freedom and progress on next November is now placed beyond any peradventure.

WAUKEGAN, May 23.—The action of the Convention in putting in nomination Grant and Colfax for the highest offices in the gift of the people, gives the most unbounded satisfaction to every Republican in Lake county. The receipt of the news created the wildest enthusiasm in this city, and it spread like wildfire. Farmers, on their way home from town, shouted it to others at work in the fields, who threw up their hats for joy, and for the time work was quite suspended.

WATERLOO CITY, Ind., May 23.—A rousing ratification meeting to ratify the nominations of the Chicago Convention was held here to-night, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic. Stirring speeches were made by R. M. Lockwood, General L. S. Blair, Post Commander G. A. R., Captain E. D. Hartman and others.

Indiana is good for 25,000 majority in November. Hurrah for Grant and Colfax.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—The Republicans had a grand ratification meeting to-night. A salute of one hundred guns was fired, with bonfires, &c. Speeches were made by Gov. Baker, Hon. Will Cumback, General Kimball and others.

DETROIT, May 22.—Nothing but the most unalloyed satisfaction is expressed in this State over the Republican nominations. The ticket was just what Michigan would have made if she had control. A grand ratification meeting will be held in this city on Monday evening next.

DUBUQUE, May 23.—All over Iowa, Minnesota, and Western Wisconsin the news of the nomination of Grant and Colfax causes great rejoicing. The people can and will support them with a hearty good will. All Republicans here are satisfied.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The New York Times says: "The people have faith in Grant, and the selection of Colfax is eminently judicious."

The World says: "The ticket would have been a strong one five months ago. It is completely Western and wholly Radical. Grant is without popular qualities, but a successful military career hides a multitude of defects. Colfax is perhaps the most popular man in the party. On the whole, the ticket is a strong one."

The New York Tribune predicts that Grant's electoral and popular majorities will exceed those of Lincoln over McClellan. "He will receive more votes from reconstructed rebels than any other man in the country. Under the auspices of Grant and Colfax, our country is destined to achieve a speedy restoration to its former prosperity and more than its former fraternity."

The Sun says the Chicago ticket is a strong one and will receive the enthusiastic support of the Republicans.

The Times, while generally approving the platform, thinks it as a matter of policy, not less than propriety, that the whole subject of impeachment should have been avoided.

The Herald says the platform is a work of some ingenuity. Like an old campaigner, the convention moves with a bold step where the ground is solid, but treads cautiously and tenderly over the boggy places. The Commercial supports the ticket, regarding it as insuring victory in advance, and expresses gratification over the defeat of Fenton. It condemns the second and eighth sections of the platform, and cordially approves the balance thereof.

The Post eulogizes the ticket, and says the resolutions, whatever fault a minute criticism might detect in the language, or in the form of some of them, are as a whole an explicit and satisfactory declaration of the general sense of justice applied to the living questions of the day.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Herald to-day, after applauding the nominations, says: "The Republicans have the advantage of a strong ticket, a flexible platform, and of being the first in the field. By the Fourth of July they will be a well organized army, fully equipped and entrenched in a strong position. By strategy, by regular approaches, their work must be carried, if carried at all."

The Tribune is of opinion "that, since the days of Washington and Adams, we have had none more worthy of the overwhelming unanimous support of the American people, without distinction of party. The platform is fair, temperate and firm. While denouncing all forms of repudiation, it consults the interest of the tax payer, by recommending a redemption of the public debt and reduction of the rate of interest. It sustains reconstruction on the basis of impartial suffrage and loyal supremacy, justifies the impeachment of Andrew Johnson for his high crimes and misdemeanors, and guarantees protection to all naturalized citizens. Against such candidates and principles, the treachery of false friends, and the hostility of open foes, are alike futile. Now, let our friends in Congress push on the work of reconstruction, the chief present duty of the Republican party, so that the votes of all the States if possible, may be cast at the election. Let us have an administration unanimously elected by all the States, and by so large a majority of the whole people that its adversaries will thank us for omitting to mention them."

The Tribune also approves the two resolves adopted on the suggestion of General Schurz. "They refute," it says, "the frequently iterated charges that the Republicans are vindictive and implacable in their feeling toward the late rebels, and show that what we truly demand is not punishment for the past, but security for the future."

The Times thinks the selection of these men as candidates, and the entire absence of anything like intolerance and bitter ultraism in the platform, has brought back to the Republican party its old unity and sentiment, and will inspire it to a renewal of its old enthusiasm. "The clouds which a week ago seemed to threaten its future have already disappeared." The party will make a hearty, zealous and determined struggle, and it will task to the utmost the resources of its opponents to devise any policy or programme of action against it that will promise the slightest chance of success.

On the final ballot for Vice President, after the changes were made, Colfax had 523 votes, Fenton 72, Wade 42, and Wilson 11.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 11.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—In the House, the bill to incorporate the National Art Union Association, after brief discussion, was tabled.

Hunter offered a resolution reciting the allegations of Father McMahon, as to having been lodged in Kingston (Canada) penitentiary, because an Irish American Fenian paper had been found in his possession, and directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to inquire into the facts.

The speaker presented a message from the President communicating information in reference to the recent treaty for the Osage Indian lands. Referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, with power to send for persons and papers.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Tax bill. The amendment offered last night exempted from special tax, dealers in unmanufactured lumber and breadstuffs. The committee rejected the amendment exempting the manufacture of sugar from beets, and also rejected the proviso that breadstuffs shall not be classed as manufactures. A long discussion then took place in reference to the payment of a special tax on transfer of business from one party to another. An amendment was offered that no such second payment shall be necessary. Agreed to.

Holman moved to amend section 92 by including among those to be taxed as manufacturers or dealers, persons who make sugar and molasses from sorghum. Agreed to.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Senator Yates reported a bill admitting Colorado.

A joint resolution granting permission to officers and soldiers to wear badges of the corps in which they served during the war passed.

The bill for the relief of certain contractors was considered. Hendricks' amendment making it a full discharge of all claims on account of vessels, upon which the auditing board had made allowance in their report, was adopted and the bill passed.

Mr. Sumner moved a reconsideration of the vote on the passage of the bill admitting the rebel States to allow Mr. Yates to make a speech. Mr. Yates then spoke in favor of the doctrine of equal rights to all.

Mr. Sumner then withdrew the motion and the bill to continue the freedmen's bureau was taken up. Mr. Hendricks got the floor and spoke in opposition to the bill. He characterized it as an attempt to continue political dominion, saying the people will condemn that as well as the other reconstruction measures. Mr. Drake called the speech a plea for Democratic candidates, and the debate was continued for some time by Wilson, Patterson and Davis, without acting.

The bill relieving the political disabilities of Roderick A. Butler of Tennessee was taken up. The Committee on Judiciary reported a substitute releasing him from disabilities and requiring as a pre-requisite to holding office an oath simply to support the Constitution of United States and give full allegiance to the same and faithfully discharge the duties of the office. Passed by 23 to 5. Adjourned.

In the House, at 3 o'clock, the committee rose to allow Mr. Butler to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That Chas. W. Wooley, having appeared before Committee of Investigation and answered all questions and thus purged himself of contempt of the House, be discharged from arrest.

Mr. Butler added that the witness had answered fully and distinctly all the questions put to him. The resolution was adopted.

The Senate amendment to the bill to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama to representation in Congress, were referred to the Committee on Reconstruction. Adjourned.

From Canada.

TORONTO, June 11.—A dispatch from Ottawa, Canada, says the prevalent rumor is that the English Government wishes to stipulate that the Canadian Government shall not increase the public debt till it guaranteed to build an international railroad. It is not believed that this condition will be complied with. The question will occupy the attention of the Minister of Finance while in England.

A movable column, composed of the 1st battalion, 1st brigade, forty three volunteer battalions, the Ottawa field battery and Frontenay's cavalry, is held in readiness to proceed under orders at an hour's notice.

ROSS' POINT, N. Y., June 11.—Four pieces of Fenian artillery have left for parts unknown. Three cases of muskets arrived at Catagus yesterday.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

BELGRADE, Servia, June 10.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon, Michael, the reigning Prince of Servia, while walking in Fopschadore Park, was shot down by three men with revolvers. There is great excitement over the assassination. He belongs to the Obornwitch family, the reigning dynasty of Servia.

LONDON, June 11.—Particulars of the assassination of Prince Michael at Belgrade yesterday, are, that the Prince was shot at the first fire and expired immediately. The Prince's cousin was also killed, and the daughter of the latter received a wound. Some of the attendants were wounded. One of the assassins was captured.

PARIS, June 11.—The Moniteur states that the Czar has made a proposal to Napoleon that France and Russia unite in an effort to induce all the civilized nations to abandon the use of torpedoes and explosive projectiles in time of war. The same paper says this humane proposal meets with the approval of the Emperor who, however, thinks it may be necessary to employ torpedoes for defensive purposes.

LONDON, June 11.—The last dispatch from Belgrade represents the excitement as intense. No outbreaks, however, have occurred. Two of the assassins have been arrested. It is ascertained that a father and two sons were the assassins. One of the latter is still at large.

The official returns of the Bank of England show that the specie has increased a quarter of a million of pounds since last report.

A. G. Bradford was chosen Chairman and D. J. Malarkey, Secretary.

A. G. BRADFORD was placed in nomination for Councilman.

SECOND WARD

Dr. J. W. Dodge was chosen Chairman and A. H. Morgan, Secretary.

THIRD WARD

J. G. Swafford chosen Chairman.

CHARLES HOPKINS was nominated for Councilman.

[illegible] J. P. O. Lownsdale, E. J. Northrup, P. J. Mann, I. Gradon, W. F. Wilcox and D. Monnastes were [illegible] delegates to the City Convention.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON JUDGE.—The following proceedings were had in the Circuit Court yesterday:

Virginia F. Rogers vs. Orin H. Rogers, plaintiff granted a divorce from said defendant. Hill for plaintiff.

Solomon Berry vs. Moses Solomon; action on two [illegible] notes; judgment against defendant by default for $1,124 24. Hill and Mulkey for plaintiff.

Vernon Meyers vs. Jas. B. Harker; verdict of jury [illegible] defendant for $802. Gibbs and Parrish for plaintiff. Mitchell, Dolph & Smith, for defendant.

S. G. Elliott vs. Geo. H. Belden; action on account, jury empanneled. Mitchell, Dolph & Smith, for plaintiff; [illegible] and Shattuck for defendant.

Lewis Hedlich vs. W. Ham, et. al., action on promissory note, case submitted to jury. Wait & Lancaster for plaintiff; Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for defendant.

State of Oregon vs. John McCurran, defendant pleaded not guilty. R. E. Bybee for defendant, M. F. Mulkey for State.

Grand Jury [illegible]nted two bills of indictment.

COMPLIMENTARY SERENADE.—A delegation from the [illegible] fire companies of the Vancouver Fire Department came over last evening to escort their Chief Engineer, Geo. C. [illegible], home, on the occasion of his permanent [illegible] to Vancouver. The delegation in procession, [illegible] by the 1st U. S. Cavalry band, marched from the [illegible] to Washington street, where they halted and received their Chief. He was welcomed back among his old comrades and to the head of the Department, in a brief but complimentary speech, to which he replied, acknowledging in appropriate terms, the honor done him by this demonstration. With their Chief at the head of the [illegible], the firemen then marched past the several [illegible] of this city, being saluted at each by the ringing of its bell. Reaching Washington street again, the [illegible] halted and each man drank to the health of the Chief. They then went to No. 2's house, where [illegible] were served by the firemen of Portland, after which the Vancouver delegations, with Chief [illegible], [illegible] to the steamer [illegible] and returned home. The [illegible]ration was certainly very flattering to Mr. [illegible], and evinced clearly the high [illegible] in which he is held by his fellow citizens of the Vancouver Fire [illegible].

DISTRICT CONVENTION OF PREACHERS.—We learn that the District Convention of M. E. preachers, mentioned some days ago in the OREGONIAN, was held at Lafayette on the 4th and 5th inst., and that the session was highly [illegible] and gratifying to those who participated in [illegible]. It was the first meeting of the kind ever held in Oregon, so far as we know. The convention was not in character, like a conference, but rather [illegible] consultation meeting, in which all the participants were at liberty to express their views of the best [illegible] of [illegible]ting the cause of religion, the efficiency of the ministry, etc. Rev. J. F. DeVore, the Presiding Elder of the district, was chairman of the convention and Rev. Mr. Flinn was Secretary. According to assignment, essays were read on various subjects, by Revs. [illegible], Spencer, Flinn, Stratton, Cooper, Turner, Jeukins and Roe, and during the convention several sermons were preached. It was resolved that hereafter, the ministers of this district would hold similar conventions [illegible]ally—the next one to be held on Tuesday, October 13th at Dallas, Polk county, and the following, on the last Tuesday of May, 1869.

[illegible].—Everybody has seen and admired the large, fine looking bay horse driven by Charley [illegible] to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express wagon, in this city. His size, strength, intelligence and docility have [illegible] made him coveted by the powers that be, in San Francisco, and they have made several attempts to get him, but hitherto without success. Imperative orders [illegible] been received by Mr. Mills to send him [illegible] "Gen. Grant"—so named by Mr. Mills for [illegible] will leave by the steamer this evening [illegible] hereafter at San Francisco. It will be something of a [illegible] to the express people to part with the General, [illegible] always been a favorite and pet with them.

TO-NIGHT.—Remember the benefit this [illegible], of Miss Sarah and Master Bobby McGinley, at Oro Fino Hall. Remember the prize conundrum and the [illegible] watch. Besides the McGinleys and Johnny [illegible] is a first rate programme, Johnny O'Neil, who [illegible] a favorite in this city, will [illegible] in the Old Man," "The Irish Wedding," and in one or two [illegible] best character dances. There has not for many a year, been offered in Portland such a combination [illegible] as will appear to-night at Oro Fino Hall.

[illegible] AND MARRIED.—We have received information that Lt. Chas. Hobart, who served from 1861 to 1865 in the [illegible] Cavalry regiment, and who was afterwards [illegible] from Oregon to a First Lieutenancy in the regular army, has been promoted to be a Captain, and that [illegible] married, at San Francisco. That's what [illegible]—to be promoted and married all in one year—but then, Charley was always a lucky dog. He has been [illegible] at Fort Churchill, Arizona, and we believe [illegible] is yet somewhere in that Territory.

[illegible] FESTIVAL.—Verily, these are the days [illegible] strawberry and cream festivals, ice-cream [illegible] festivals with strawberries and cream and [illegible]. These are the sort of festivals that make it a thing to be alive and to be able to find enough [illegible] a large amount of happiness. The next [illegible] of this kind will be at Oro Fino Hall [illegible] evening under the management of the la[illegible] church.

[illegible].—Early yesterday morning a report gained ex[illegible] that H. Wm. Daly, the local editor of the [illegible], had died during the previous night. We [illegible] that the report was untrue, but continued to [illegible] occasionally throughout the day, by persons who had not heard it contradicted. Mr. Daly is [illegible], but we are happy to learn that his physicians do not apprehend any fatal consequences.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Jonathan Minteen of Roxa[illegible], [illegible] county, Ohio, writes for information concerning David W. Minteen, who emigrated from Iowa to Oregon in 1852, and first settled in Lane county. When last heard from, he was living at the Dalles. He is about [illegible] years old, if living and was, at one time, a local [illegible] preacher. Information concerning him should [illegible] to Jonathan Minteen, as above.

[illegible] AT VANCOUVER.—The Register says [illegible] companies composing the Vancouver Fire [illegible] have determined to celebrate the Fourth at [illegible] have accordingly appointed a joint committee [illegible] programme, which will make its report on [illegible] evening, at Redding's Hall. Whether it will be [illegible] celebration exclusively or not will be then [illegible].

[illegible].—The steamer Okanagon on Thursday towed the [illegible] from Springville to Rainier where she is taking on a deck load of lumber—200,000 feet. The bark Jane A. Falkenburg cleared at San Francisco for [illegible] on the 11th inst. and probably sailed yesterday. The bark Whistler is loading at San Francisco for this port.

WANTED.—We learn that there is a great [illegible] of men at the fisheries along the lower Columbia river, and that a considerable number of good boatmen could [illegible] immediate employment at good wages. At [illegible] establishments, workmen are also wanted [illegible] the labor is light.

[illegible] OF A LODGE.—Nonpareil Lodge, No. 86, I. O. [illegible] has secured a very comfortable and spacious hall in [illegible]'s new building on First street, between [illegible] and Taylor, and will hereafter hold its meetings [illegible]. The first meeting in the new hall will be held [illegible] at 8 o'clock.

[illegible] RECEIPTS.—The following were the receipts [illegible] by Per steamer Senator, 2 648 qr sks flour, 28 [illegible], 13 hf bbls butter, 5 bales woolen goods, 1 bale [illegible]. Per Wenat, 30 sks oats, 15 bags wheat and 28 [illegible] potatoes. Per steamer Alert, 4 881 qr sks flour, [illegible] sks mill flings.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Mrs. C. M. Stowe, the Trance [illegible], will deliver a lecture at the Oro Fino Hall on [illegible] evening.

[illegible] OREGON CITY.—The hall fitted up for a theater [illegible] City was slightly damaged by fire on Thursday.

HATS FOR WARM WEATHER.—The Jerome Park, the [illegible] the Yeddo Hats are the coolest headcoverings for this [illegible], and can be procured at Meussdorffer's.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, June 12, 1868.

On the 11th gold quoted at New York at 140.

There is a speculative movement in legal tenders, at San Francisco, brokers buying at 72 and selling at 73c.

New York telegrams of the 11th, quote Flour at $11 00 @$13, Wheat $2 65@$2 80, Wool 18c to 35c for Spring Clip.

At San Francisco, Extra Flour, in quarter sacks, $5 12½@$6 25. Wheat market dull at $2 45.

Our local Produce market is extremely dull, prices nominal without material change. Receipts of Produce scarcely worth mention and shipments very light. The late advance at San Francisco, as we predicted, has had no perceptible influence on the trade here. The supplies of Grain and Flour now in the city will go forward, but beyond that, no movements of consequence need be anticipated till after harvest.

The Merchandise Market has undergone no change for the better since last week. Drygoods—trade confined to small bills, mostly to dealers in the Willamette Valley. In Groceries a moderately fair business has been done. Hardware, unusually dull. Agricultural goods in moderate demand. Retail trade is correspondingly dull, in all lines.

We have the San Francisco Market Review of June 6th, issued by Knapp, Burrell & Co., from which we take the following extracts:

The weather continues exceedingly propitious for the crops. It could not be more so, and the intelligence which reaches us from all parts of the grain growing districts of this state are of a character that is every way assuring, leading us to anticipate large yields of cereals and of a superior quality. We have seen stalks of Wild Oats eight feet high, Wheat 7½ feet, and Barley in like proportion. We give a few extracts from our interior exchanges. The Stockton Independent of May 28th, says: "J. M. Barber, a farmer who resides about eight miles south of French Camp, brought to this office yesterday a bunch of Wheat, the straws of which average over six feet in length. The heads are large and the grain finely developed. A field of such grain must be more like a Wheat forest than an ordinary crop. Mr. Barber informs us that the late rains have materially benefitted the crops in that section of the county, and we learn that the same is the case in other sections of the county. James Taylor yesterday brought some heads of Wheat, taken from a field of 300 acres, from his ranch on Bear Creek, Merced county, that measured over eight inches in length. The kernel is formed, and the grain will be ready for the reaper in ten days. Mr. Taylor is confident that the yield will average eighty bushels to the acre, which will make the crop on 300 acres amount to 24,000 bushels. We should be glad to learn, after harvest, that the yield has come up to his expectations." The Los Angeles Star of May 23d, says: "We received from the Puente Ranch, this week, a bunch of Barley, 125 stalks, all growing from a single seed. It was from a field of Mr. Workman. Let that [illegible] and see who can beat it."

At the [illegible] meeting of the Produce Exchange, held on the 3d inst., the following persons were elected [illegible] for the [illegible] year: Horace Davis, President; [illegible] Clayton, Vice President; George W. Stewart, T[illegible], [illegible] A. Walrath, A. Sperry and J. W. [illegible] The President submitted [illegible] view of the society's [illegible] existence—numbering [illegible] President Davis [illegible] to a career of great influence [illegible] I hope to see the other [illegible] Produce united with us. [illegible] alone have amounted to [illegible] annually for two [illegible] This year there is reasonable prospect of their [illegible] Already our Wheat and Flour [illegible] Our prosperity will go hand in hand with the [illegible] of the State, and who will see the [illegible] of that now? I believe our most [illegible] do not equal the realities of the future. We will [illegible] foundation worthy of such a future."

The [illegible] of Oregon produce from January 1st, 1868, to date have been as follows: 249,423 qr. sacks Flour, 81,510 ctls. Wheat, 9,036 sacks Oats, 36,270 bxs. Apples, 2,480 bbls. Dried Apples, 1,666 pkgs. Bacon and Hams, 455 kegs Lard, 2,300 bbls. Beef and Pork, 1,033 bbls. and 1,450 hf. bbls. Salmon.

Flour—The month of May closed with sales of choice shipping Extra, both California and Oregon brands, at $5 87½@6 per 100 lbs. June opened with sales of like description, at $6 25, [illegible] advancing at date up to $6 50, while choice family, silk dressed, both Oregon and California, rule at [illegible] in jobbing lots. This is partly the result of Austrian advices heretofore [illegible] the ship [illegible] out to the Colonies of a few [illegible] cargoes, and the fact that many holders at the close of May, becoming alarmed at the rapid [illegible] in our market, hurried to and shipped East and [illegible] the market; A few parties who keep themselves [illegible] events, foreseeing that the harvest [illegible] be late, quietly stepped in and relieved all [illegible] of their stocks of breadstuff, thus concentrating the little [illegible] and forcing buyers to pay advanced rates, which now promise [illegible] to go still higher before harvest, thus [illegible] Oregonians to obtain [illegible] for their remaining crop. The [illegible] in New York is noteworthy, and is a bitter pill for many [illegible] via the Isthmus, etc. The sales during the short [illegible] our review, so far as reported, have been as follows: 2,200 qr sacks California Superfine, [illegible] Extra, $6; 5,000 qr [illegible] for export to Central America, [illegible] Oregon Extra, $6 12½@6 25; 5,000 qr [illegible] do do, private. Other sales for export are [illegible] of which we have no [illegible] Fancy brands of [illegible] Mills and [illegible] Mills are held at [illegible] with occasional sales at these figures for East [illegible].

Wheat [illegible] upon a dull market, at $2 20@2 25 [illegible], but upon receipt of Australian advices to April 1st rates soon advanced to $2 60 and upwards, notwithstanding private advices from New York that rates had declined in that market to $2 50@2 60, and in Liverpool to 13s 6d [illegible] prospects [illegible] promising, [illegible] present [illegible] will be later than [illegible] Since our last steamer reference, 1,600 sacks sold at [illegible]; 2,500 sacks, [illegible]; 1,300 sacks [illegible], $2 45; 1,000 sacks milling, $2 50; 2,600 do, in lots, $2 47½@2 55; 3,000 sacks for export to [illegible], private. At the close, 1,000 sacks choice sold at $2 60½.

Fruit—Since September 1st, to the present time, we have received 66,000 boxes of Oregon Apples, against 65,370 boxes for the corresponding period of last year, showing a [illegible] of over 22,000 boxes. The receipts for the year [illegible] were 102,880 boxes, which show a gradual falling off each year in our supplies from the North, [illegible] of the crop of California Apples, [illegible] in a fair supply up to the middle of January, [illegible] there was less demand for early Oregon [illegible]. Then the Columbia river was closed to navigation for nearly seven weeks (from the middle of January to the 1st of March) which prevented our usual supplies that otherwise would have been received.

A THRILLING INCIDENT

In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the "Baptist Messenger," relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Budhist high priests, who had been nearly killed; and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest; all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer.—London Times.

Rev. J. E. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes, "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." mldaw1m

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern:—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which, if he would only take the case to Court, would soon be played out. Don't be bluffed.

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.

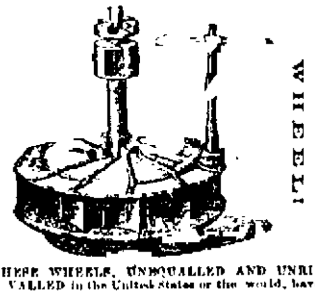
LEFFEL'S

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern. I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel, does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use those two tier of buckets, whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN.

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.

A. MYERS.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies, see that they are cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tinsmiths, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 282.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 282 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d4ptf

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and [illegible] give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.
